

Success: Eleanor Wainwright, Caitlin Windsor Davies, Chloe Shortman and Ellie Wallace

Busy pupils buzzing over win

PUPILS at Redland High School are buzzing after winning the local heat of the 2011 Times Spelling Bee.

The girls, Eleanor Wainwright, 12, Caitlin Windsor Davies, 12, Chloe Shortman, 11 and reserve Ellie Wallace, 11, successfully spelled challenging words such as accessible and pasteurised.

Teacher Clare Rodliffe said: "I'm very proud of my team. They've been practising very hard for many weeks; they deserve it!"

The team said: "We're so happy and all the hard work we've done has paid off!"

After winning the heat at Cineworld in Bristol, the girls go forward to the semi-finals in May. The 11 winning teams from the semi-finals will then compete in the final in London in June. More than 1,000 schools are taking part in the contest to find the country's best young spellers.
